

POWERS Erasmus+ Jean Monnet Network

Vision paper “International security threat perceptions by EU Member States, Middle East and Russia”

The conference will result in a collection of articles of the conference participants in the printed edited volume of Vision Paper and their subsequent placement in the E-library.RU (the most influential scholarly library in Russia based on citation analysis) in the frame of its project - the Russian Science Citation Index.

We invite paper that examine one or more aspects of the theme from all disciplines and related areas. We hope the papers will address the topic in a variety of ways and from a range of perspectives.

The collection of articles includes the following units corresponding to the conference panels:

- 1) Threats to European security: common challenges and differences in the approaches of Russia, the EU and the countries of the Middle East
- 2) Regional approaches to ensuring international security: Russia, the EU and the Middle East
- 3) European security and migration issues
- 4) Identity policy as a tool of security policy.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

1. GENERAL RULES

Articles of full length are to be sent by e-mail to the Conference Committee up to 1st July 2019.

We ask the authors to submit papers those contain results of original research performed as full articles. The articles have been published before in other journals cannot be submitted and reviewed.

We ask to prepare the texts in accordance with the following editorial requirements:

- Text should contain up to 25 000 characters with spaces and footnotes (tables and figures) and be provided in MicrosoftWord format. Tables are parts of a text and should not be presented as drawing objects. If drawing objects are needed we ask to submit them in TIFF, JPEG, BMP, WMF formats.
- Text should be printed by font TimesNewRomanCyr 14 points, standard margins, 1.5 lines for line spacing.
- Pages should be numbered. Tables, drawings and references are numbered in textual order. Each table should have its own thematic heading.

POWERS Erasmus+ Jean Monnet Network

Structure of the texts:

- The paper should be accompanied by short abstract and key words.
- Abstract should specify the aim of the article, research problem, hypotheses and research methods.
- The text should be accompanied by data about the author, correspondence address, telephone numbers and institutional e-mail address.
- Required structure: title of the publication, author (authors), abstract, key words, text, bibliography.
- Author's name at the beginning of the article, after the title, affiliation of the author in the lower footnote.

Requirements to references:

- Reference to the bibliography cited should be given by a figure in brackets.
- If a reference is located in a table or a drawing capture it is numbered according to location of this material in the text.
- Reference to unpublished resources cannot be accepted.
- References are placed in the order of citation.

2. TEMPLATE OF A PUBLICATION

TITLE OF THE ARTICLE

The author's name

Academic affiliation

Date of submission

ABSTRACT

e.g. Abstract: the article focuses on key trends in internationalisation of higher education in the examples of Aston University and British higher education institutions. The authors state that the goals that a university sets itself to achieve in regard to its development should be taken into consideration when determining the internationalisation strategy.

KEY WORDS

e.g. Key words: internationalisation, international cooperation, strategy, academic mobility, transnational education

POWERS Erasmus+
Jean Monnet Network

FULL TEXT

BIBLIOGRAPHY

1. Atherton G., Azizan S., Crosling G. The shape of global higher education: understanding the ASEAN region. Volume 3 / G. Atherton, S. Azizan, G. Crosling. – British Council, 2018. – 32 p.
2. Lisbon Recognition Convention [electronic source]. – Available at: https://www.coe.int/t/dg4/highereducation/recognition/code%20of%20good%20practice_EN.asp

DATA ABOUT THE AUTHOR

University

Name, surname

Position

Email

Telephone